DAN'S—That's all. adv
Al Harris and family have gone to Crabtree, Oregon, for the summer.

A pair of bouncing twins were recent arrivals at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Marcy.

Rev. B. T. Thomas of Forest Grove will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

A good list of the latest Dance Records for Columbia or Victor Machines at the St. Johns Pharmacy.

Albert Payson Terhune may have another subject for his articles on "Little Causes of Great Wars."

Mrs. Anna Harrison, mother of Mrs. W. S. Farris, died Tuesday in a Portland hospital, a complete account of which will appear next week.

Ambulance service, day and night. St. Johns Undertaking Co., successors to Blackburn Undertaking Co.; office Col. 527; Residence, Col. 299.

Seven new members were added to the Moose enrollment last night, making a total membership of 409. The charter will remain open for a few days longer.

The Debonair Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. N. Keeler yesterday afternoon, at which a delicious lunch was served.

Every person who lives in St. Johns and owns property is personally interested in having D. C. Lewis in the next Legislature as our representative. A vote for him is a boost for St. Johns.

Otis Learned and family returned this week from a winter's stay in California, and while they enjoyed the sojourn immensely, are glad to once more return to St. Johns.

W. E. Ashby brought a young chick into the Review office yesterday that was a curiosity. It had four perfectly formed legs, but unfortunately it died after two days of earthly existence.

Mrs. A. Learned has returned from a most delightful sojourn in California, where she had pleasantly spent the greater part of the winter. Her many friends were glad to welcome her back to St. Johns.

The scenic hillside drive on the west side of the river is now an assured fact, as the city of Linnton has begun proceedings toward its accomplishment. Bids for construction will be called for in a couple of weeks.

The Lincoln Republican Club will hold a meeting in the city hall next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Prominent speakers will be present. Everybody invited. If you care for good speaking, don't fail to attend.

Dr. Slocum, present county coroner, and candidate for reelection, has inaugurated a system whereby inquests will be held in St. Johns in all local cases. This is something that the people of St. Johns should appreciate.

Plans are being made to erect the mammoth flag pole donated to the Panama-Pacific Exposition during the latter part of the month when the Rose Festival Queen and her maids visit San Francisco. The pole is of Douglas fir, 246 feet long, 54 feet at the butt and weighs 93,000 pounds.

The Corona Club extends its thanks and appreciation to the Mothers' Club and to the Eastern Star Lodge for the honors given to the Club Orchestra. The "Live Wires" have been making short circuits lately, and flashing around a great deal, so we may expect a show at any time.

S. Misner, W. Chaney and A. S. Seales have been elected delegates to the grand lodge of Odd Fellows, which will convene at McMinnville May 19 and 20. The Rebekah lodge elected Mrs. W. Chaney, Mrs. J. Day and Mrs. Effa Beam delegates to the state assembly of Rebekahs, which meets at McMinnville on the same date.

E. S. Wright has exchanged his property in St. Johns for a well stocked general merchandise store at Heiser, Washington, and he moved his family to their new home on Wednesday. It is with much regret that their friends see them leaving St. Johns, but their best wishes for success and prosperity follow them to their new home.

Rev. James E. Murphey preached his farewell sermon at the Congregational church Sunday morning. Rev. Murphey's severance as pastor of the Congregational church is a matter of regret to many of our people. He has proven to be an earnest, faithful and energetic pastor, and a man broad minded in his ideas, and is universally respected. The people of St. Johns will learn with a great deal of pleasure that Rev. Murphey will continue to be a resident of this city.

That old Biblical injunction, "Return good for evil," is not taken very seriously in dealing with governmental affairs.

We inadvertently failed to note the fact that a fine baby girl had arrived at the home of Dentist B. F. Rambo about three weeks ago.

A. A. Johnson, a former resident of St. Johns, but now located at Waldport, Oregon, greeted old time friends in St. Johns last week.

The St. Johns base ball club will give an entertainment and dance in the Eagles' hall Saturday evening, May 2. Admission 25 cents; dancing free. A thoroughly good time is promised.

"Captain" Kidd of near Oregon City paid this office a very pleasant visit Monday, and treated the force to cigars and ice cream. The Captain is a souvenir maker of fine skill and ingenuity.

The meeting held by the Lincoln Republican club in the city hall last Monday evening was not as well attended as should have been the case. Counter attractions diverted the people to other places.

A reception for the Mothers of St. Johns and the Grammar and High school teachers held by the W. C. T. U., Tuesday afternoon, in the auditorium of the High school, was a most pleasing affair. A splendid program was rendered.

Mayor Vincent makes a most excellent presiding officer. He takes a grip on things with a master hand, and his knowledge of city affairs is particularly valuable. It is certain that the destinies of the city are safe and secure under his guidance.

Try our famous Rose Spray, ready for use; only 25 cents per gallon. Also a complete line of the various sprays, fumigators and insecticides, parasite destroyers, etc., for flowers, plants, fruits, vegetables and animals. At the St. Johns Pharmacy.

The Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Parker was celebrated in the Christian church Tuesday evening. A more complete account of the event celebrating this most worthy couple's long and happy period of companionship will appear next week.

Miss Stella Campling, a former well known and popular St. Johns young lady, is a contestant for Rose Carnival Queen. St. Johns people are requested to save coupons which are printed in the daily papers and hand them in at the St. Johns Pharmacy for her benefit. She is a most deserving young lady, and any aid lent her in this contest will be duly appreciated. Save the coupons every day.

Ray Detson & Co., proprietors of the Richmond street garage, have submitted a proposition to furnish complete a combination hose and chemical auto truck for $2500, with a speed of 60 miles an hour and capable of carrying a ton and one-half. It would be built in St. Johns, and in appearance and in every other way equal or better than any other apparatus of its kind. This is by far the best proposition yet offered, and the chances are that council will accept the same.

Arthur Perey and D. W. Aulbach of Kenton were recently convicted before Judge Williams' Court for seining bass with a net, and each fined. Deputy State Game Warden Frank Ervin caused the arrest of these men for the violation. Mr. Ervin, who makes a most capable official, states that he would much prefer that people would refrain from violating the game laws, that while he is willing to give all a chance, yet so long as he is officer he will enforce the law. He is very loath to arrest any one, but people must realize that the laws are made to be obeyed. All sportsmen should take fair warning and not violate the game laws.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Blackburn, former undertakers of St. Johns, were pleasantly surprised Friday evening at their home, 652 Union avenue, Portland, by members of the Fraternal Brotherhood and Rebekah Lodges of St. Johns. The evening was spent in playing five hundred and dancing. Dainty refreshments were served. It was not until the Owls began to run that the merry-makers thought of going home, and then with a great deal of reluctance. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. G. O'Malley, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Locke, Hattie McKinney, Bessie Schultz, Faye Glasgow, Irene Hartle, Ada Thor, Ina Keates and Edna McKinney. Mr. Nathan Gee, Ora Balke, James Welch, Wesley Heck and Elmer Worton.

New York high school pupils spell "isosceles" fifty-six different ways. Can you blame 'em?

The old fashioned man who used to say he took nothing on trust would be greatly worried these days at the sight of skirts draped to look as if they were falling off.

An Ohio farm hand has not had a pay day for twenty-five years, and now he is suing for a reckoning. The farmer's daughter must have married the other man.

The only thing wrong with the dandelion is that it is too common. If it were rare the government would be sending out dandelion seeds in neat little packages and urging cultivation of the plant.

What has become of the old fashioned little boy who used to ride a broomstick and imagine he had the fastest horse in the county?

That old bottle scarred veteran, Huerta, will find a disagreeable difference between being half-shot and shot at.

"I would be a hard job to bring up a boy in the way the neighbors think he ought to go.

Willard Emigh of Burley, Idaho, was a guest of the editor last week. He has been engaged in the newspaper business there for a number of years.

The St. Johns Pharmacy ball club was disappointed Sunday afternoon by the non-appearance of the Villa Reds of Portland, which team had contracted to play the locals on the Hill grounds. Quite a crowd had collected in anticipation of the game. The Reds probably feared that it would be too wet to play, which, however, was not the case.

The Board of Governors of the Commercial Club met at luncheon Monday noon and heard the reports of the various committees. All reported good progress being made. No further new business was taken up in order that the business on hand may receive the fullest attention. It was, however, decided that a booth should be taken at the Rose Carnival in which a proper display will be made. President Bonham and Secretary Hiller have this matter in charge.
